Description

This Chestnut timber desk is inspired by the Arts and Crafts period of joinery with its classic stop chamfer detail on both panels and drawer fronts. It big and generous and very usable with a sizable workspace and collection of six good drawers to keep things tidy and in order. It bridges functionality with good design. Perfect for a home office, painted in black and waxed the desk takes on a completely different look. As with all William Yeoward bespoke furniture the Partners Desk can be crafted in a variety of timbers from oak and chestnut through to mahogany and walnut.
