Description

Comfort, luxury and style is at the heart of our 'concept' upholstery collection. A range of modern, upholstered furniture with timeless details and perfect proportions in a wide array of customisable finishes and fills. Sustainably hand produced by British artisans. Did we mention extremely comfortable?

The Shoreville was our first ever design in the 'concept' upholstery collection and has been our number one sofa ever since, but it is equally fabulous as a chair! The Shoreville suits a variety of different spaces whether it be an edgy contemporary city apartment or laid-back country barn. Less formal but no less stylish, Shoreville offers great flexibility with its clean lines and fine proportions. Also available in a taller and less deep version - The Shoreville Shallow. For more information about this piece please email us on enquiries@williamyeoward.com, we'd be happy to help.

A bit of WY team member endorsement by Louise - our Customer Relations & Marketing Manager:

"The Shoreville is without a doubt my favourite sofa - not just by William Yeoward - but of all time! I remember the first time I ever sat in it... I knew then that there was not much point in ever looking any further, this was the one. The comfort and style combined makes it not only a fabulous statement piece, but it's also like sitting on a marshmallow cloud, just heaven. I feel like the sofa should be the hub of any home, as much space as you can spare to fit as many of your loved ones as possible to really invite life into your living room. A great sofa to me is roomy - so inviting and inclusive as well as robust and hearty so that it can "handle life". It should be a space that sets a comfortable and stylish scene for social gatherings, laughter, lounging, napping, entertaining - and I have never ever come across a better version than the Shoreville. It really is a sofa for life!"
